VIRGINIA:

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF SCOTT COUNTY

THE COUNCIL OF THE TOWN OF WEBER CITY,

SCOTT COUNTY, VIRGINIA

PETITIONER

COURT CASE NUMBER: CL21000182

ORDER

Having reviewed the Petition of the Council for the Town of Weber City, Scott County, Virginia, presented by Counsel, and the law pertaining thereto, the Court accepts the assertions of the Council for the Town of Weber City as set forth in its Petition to be factual and finds as follows:

1. Patrick Deskins submitted his resignation as Mayor for the Town of Weber City, Scott County, Virginia effective October 14, 2020, which is more than 12 months from the date of his current term ending on June 30, 2022.
2. Pursuant to Code of Virginia §24.228.1(D), the Council for the Town of Weber City has petitioned this Court requesting that a special election be held on Tuesday, May 4, 2021.

Accordingly, it appearing proper to the Court, it is hereby ORDERED that pursuant to Code of Virginia §24.2-228.1 (B), the Court hereby grants the request of the Council for the Town of Weber City, Scott County, Virginia, that a special election be ordered and held on Tuesday, May 4, 2021 and that the Vice Mayor shall now assume the role of Mayor for the Town of Weber City, Scott County, Virginia, who is qualified to vote for and hold said office, and shall be vested with the powers and shall perform all of the duties of the office and be entitled to all the privileges and protections afforded by law to elected or appointed officers until the election on Tuesday, May 4, 2021.

ENTERED: February 18, 2021.
